8 Golden Rules for our Makerspace

1. Be kind to each other.
2. Look out for each other.
3. Safety is paramount: Wear PPE when in the workshop area.
4. Use common sense, don't make us come up with a rule.
5. Be generous with your knowledge and skill sharing.
6. Every project will take twice as long as you initially think. Leave time to clean up after yourself.
7. Leave the space in a better condition than you found it.
8. You are joining a community. We expect 10% of your active time spent at MCI contributing to improving the community.
9. And most importantly: Be kind to each other.

Rules of Membership Agreement

Expected behaviour of all members:

1. Look out for each other

- a. If you see someone working in an unsafe manner, advise them you think so and provide advice on how to mitigate the risk.

2. We have two safety priorities

- a. Ensuring the safety of Our Members and Visitors
- b. Ensuring the safety of our Equipment

3. Safety Equipment

- a. First Aid Kit: Stored inside MCI workshop next to the door.
- b. Fire-extinguishers are stored near the doors in both classroom and workshop.

4. Emergency

- a. In an emergency call 000.
- b. In the case of fire call 000, evacuate to Ilhan lane and proceed to Anstey Train Station.

5. Basic Shop Rules

- a. You must use safety glasses when operating any tools.
- b. You must wear closed-toed shoes in the workshop.
- c. Secure long-hair (with a hair net if necessary) and loose clothing, remove jewelry and dangling accessories before operating tools.
- d. Know when to wear gloves and when they are a danger.
- e. Hearing Protection is recommended within the shop and necessary when using any tool that generates sound above 85 decibels which can cause hearing damage.
- f. Wearing of the provided name-tag in the workshop is required. This name-tag has your emergency contact details on the back.
- g. Only use tools for which you have been inducted on. Use of tools without induction may result in cancellation of membership.
- h. If you are being inducted on a new tool, please confirm with person inducting you that your induction file is updated.
- i. Use tools only as they are designed to be used. If you are unsure or uncomfortable please stop immediately and seek assistance.
- j. You must always be trained on and comfortable using a tool. If at any time you are unsure of what you are doing, stop immediately and ask for help.

- k. IF YOU SEE THAT A TOOL HAS BEEN DAMAGED AND IS UNSAFE, unplug it immediately, place a note on it and follow our lockout procedure.
- l. Never leave tools running unattended (with the exception of our 3D printers).
- m. If an incident occurs, please fill out our Incident Report.
- n. Don't leave projects lying around in the space after you are finished for the day. Label your projects with our Project Cards if permission for storage outside of allocated storage box has been approved.
- o. Council noise-restrictions are to be adhered to.
- p. Other than cleaning up and administrative tasks no work is to be done when alone in the space.
- q. Any liquids and chemical substances need to be properly labelled with the correct MSDS safety warnings visible. This applies to small temporary containers used to hold these substances during your work on a project. Every substance brought into the space must have an MSDS that is kept on file on site.
- r. No explosives are ever to be stored at MCI.

6. Fair Use Policy

- a. Maker Community Inc foremost is a shared space for a community of makers. As such it operates on a community-first basis:
 - i. Maker Community Inc's workshop is designed for personal projects and prototyping and this is what we are insured for. If you are planning to work on commercial productions of items you will have to obtain your own separate insurance.
 - ii. If your project makes use of consumables, bring replacement items within 7 days (same day if it is required to operate the machine). If you are heavily using a particular consumable be it, nails, or a particular saw blade for example, approach someone from the committee on how to compensate MCI to allow us to maintain a base level of consumables or bring in your own consumables. Especially on intensive tool use and tools that wear down fast (such as drill bits) for example, please bring in your own.
 - iii. Do not monopolize a machine/tool. If you become aware of another member wanting to use the tool that you are currently on, please have a discussion and come to an agreement on scheduling the shared use of that tool.
 - iv. If you break a tool while using it in a purpose it was not designed for or through user error it is common practice to pay for the repair parts and to stay involved in the repair of this tool. This repair process can often be an invaluable learning process and make you a better maker as well.

- v. The space is cleaned and maintained by you (the members of the space). It is the responsibility of each member to clean up after themselves. You should always leave the space in better shape than you found it.
- vi. You are joining a community, not just a service provider, as such it is also your responsibility to not just use the space but to give back to it. We expect our members to spend about 10% of their active time spent at MCI in improving the space. The easiest way to achieve this is to help with general cleaning, however there are lots of other ways to help. Come speak to a Committee Member to learn about our ongoing Documentation and Infrastructure projects.
- vii. Remember that every project will take longer than you think. Plan accordingly to give yourself enough time to do a thorough job of cleaning up. This includes:
 - 1. Sweeping the area you have been working in.
 - 2. Returning tools to where they belong in a ready to use condition.
 - 3. Wiping down and cleaning work surfaces (removing food/glue and paint residues as much as possible).
 - 4. Throwing away trash emptying full trash bins.

7. Members' Storage

- a. Full time members shall be entitled to utilise one shelf, sized approximately 1800mm x 500mm, plus one locker, for personal storage.
- b. Community members shall be entitled to utilise either one tub, sized approximately 40 litres, or one locker, for personal storage.
- c. The tubs, lockers and shelving that will be utilised for member storage are to be provided by Maker Community Inc, remain the property of Maker Community Inc, and must be relinquished by the member should their storage entitlement cease for any reason.
- d. Allocation of lockers is subject to availability, and members of any kind shall only be entitled to locker storage if a locker is available at the time when they request it.
- e. Maker Community Inc recognises that projects that require glueing, painting, curing, drying, or 3D printing cannot realistically be completed within a single session, and often must be left in the space while this process completes. Members may leave such workpieces in the makerspace, outside of their entitled storage allocation, under the following conditions:
 - i. The workpiece may only occupy space in excess of the owner's storage entitlement where necessary to complete the required process.

- ii. The member must position their workpiece so as to minimise inconvenience for other members, including full-time members.
 - iii. The workpiece should only occupy space in the makerspace for the minimum practical amount of time, typically the time between consecutive open sessions.
 - iv. If the workpiece is anything other than a 3D print in progress, it must be labelled with the owner's name, and a date and time at which the process is expected to have completed and the workpiece may be moved.
 - v. This policy does not apply to extremely slow processes, such as the seasoning of wood, and members should not store workpieces undergoing such extremely slow processes in the space, unless the workpiece is stored within their storage entitlement.
- f. Any member who has access to the makerspace may, subject to availability, purchase by-subscription access to additional shelving storage space.
- g. Any member who paused or cancels an additional storage space subscription must immediately remove their stored items, or else the items may be disposed of.
- h. Maker Community Inc acknowledges that at times there will be good reasons for members to cancel their memberships from the next month's payment for a period before recommencing that membership, and that members will likely want to continue storing their projects during this time period. As storage space is limited and in demand by active members, the following policies shall apply to those who do not have access to the makerspace due to having paused or cancelled their membership:
- i. If a member wishes to pause their membership and has a genuine intention to resume membership at a later date, they may request that Maker Community Inc continue to store the contents of their tub or locker for a period of up to two months during their membership pause, after which the contents may be disposed of if not collected by the member.
 - ii. Former full-time members shall be entitled to purchase continued rights to their storage space at the same rate as a community member would pay for the same space, for a period of up to two months following the pausing or cancellation of their membership, after which the member must subscribe as a community member if they wish to continue their storage space subscription, or otherwise the contents of the shelf may be disposed of if not collected by the member.
 - iii. If a former-full time member does not take out a sufficient storage space subscription at the time when their full-time membership is paused or cancelled, they must immediately remove the contents of their storage shelf, or else the contents may be disposed of.

- iv. Former community members who had subscriptions for additional storage space may continue those subscriptions for a period of up to two months following the pausing or cancellation of their membership.
- i. If a member's storage entitlement ends, Maker Community Inc will always give members at least two week's notice and opportunity to collect their property prior to it being disposed of.
- j. All members' storage entitlements, including tubs, lockers, and shelving, must be identified with the owning member's name, written on a removable label.
- k. Personal items may not be stored outside of members' storage entitlements. In the event of such unauthorised storage, Maker Community Inc shall, if the owner can be identified, request that the property be immediately removed from the space. Maker Community Inc may then dispose of such items if they are not collected promptly, regardless of whether the owner could be identified and contacted.
- l. For the purposes of the above storage policies, a membership or subscription shall be regarded as having been paused or cancelled by the member if the membership or subscription ends for any reason.

Loan Policy

MCI graciously accepts the loan of tools & equipment from individuals and businesses. This allows MCI to be able to offer a wide range without a high capital investment.

The following rules regulate the loan of things to MCI:

1. When an item is loaned, it must be documented in the asset register, with information including the cost of replacing the tool with a brand new equivalent one, and the depreciated value of the tool, considering its current state (eg. used, old, rusty, blunt, etc).
2. By agreeing to loan an item to MCI, the owner agrees that the tool will experience reasonable 'wear and tear' through normal operation, and MCI will not be held responsible for this.
3. MCI will, to within its ability, maintain and service the tools at no cost to the owner.
4. In the event of damage beyond reasonable 'wear and tear' that results in the item being unusable, MCI will replace the tool or pay out the owner a sum dictated by the depreciated value of the tool documented when it was first loaned.
5. In the event that an item has been replaced by MCI and the original owner wishes to terminate the loan agreement, the following options will be given:
 - a. The owner pays the difference between the cost of the tool replacement and the original depreciated value of the item documented when it was first loaned. The owner then takes possession of the item.
 - b. MCI pays the owner the depreciated value of the tool documented when it was first loaned. MCI then takes ownership of the tool.

- vii. Bullying that directly inflicts physical pain, harm, or humiliation amounts to assault and should be dealt with as a police matter (see below).

- b. Any reported allegations of workplace bullying will be promptly, thoroughly, and fairly investigated.
- c. Bullying complaints will be handled in a confidential and procedurally fair manner. Where confidentiality cannot be guaranteed this will be clearly communicated to the relevant parties.
- d. All parties will be treated with respect.

- x. ongoing support and guidance is provided to management, members and volunteers in relation to the prevention of bullying
- xi. this policy is displayed in the workplace and easily accessible to all workers and volunteers.

5. Procedures

a. Complaints Procedures

- i. If a member or volunteer feels comfortable in doing so, it is preferable to raise the issue with the person directly with a view to resolving the issue by discussion. The member or volunteer should identify the offensive behaviour, explain that the behaviour is unwelcome and offensive and ask that the behaviour stops.
- ii. If the behaviour continues, or if the member or volunteer feels unable to speak to the person(s) directly, they should contact a committee member with whom they feel comfortable. The committee member will provide support and ascertain the nature of the complaint.

b. Informal Intervention

- i. The committee member will explain the rights and responsibilities of the member or volunteer under the relevant policy and procedures. Informal intervention may be done through a process of either mediation or conciliation. During informal intervention the respondent will be made aware of the allegations being made against them and given the right to respond. Interventions at this stage should adopt a confidential, non-confrontational approach with a view to resolving the issue. This procedure will be complete when the alleged harasser respects the individual's request to cease unwanted and unwelcome behaviour, or when the complainant accepts that the behaviour is not properly described as bullying. If neither of these outcomes occurs, the organisation's formal procedure should be followed.

c. Formal Complaints Procedure

- i. To initiate a formal Complaint Procedure after an unsuccessful informal intervention, the member or volunteer is to fill out a Dispute/Grievance/Complaint Form.
- ii. The formal complaint procedure involves a formal investigation of the complaint. Formal investigations may be conducted internally (by an independent committee member) or by an external investigator.
- iii. An investigation involves collecting information about the complaint and then making a finding based on the available information as to whether or not the alleged behaviour occurred. Once a finding is made, the investigator will make recommendations about resolving the complaint. The investigator may need to interview the parties involved (which may include the complainant, the respondent, and any witnesses) to obtain information regarding the complaint. 1. Interpersonal Specific Complaints:

- a. Complaints Procedures
 - i. If a member or volunteer feels comfortable in doing so, it is preferable to raise the issue with the person directly with a view to resolving the issue by discussion. The member or volunteer should identify the offensive behaviour, explain that the behaviour is unwelcome and offensive and ask that the behaviour stops.

- b. Informal Intervention
 - i. The committee member will explain the rights and responsibilities of the member or volunteer under the relevant policy and procedures. Informal intervention may be done through a process of either mediation or conciliation. During informal intervention the respondent will be made aware of the allegations being made against them and given the right to respond. Interventions at this stage should adopt a confidential, non-confrontational approach with a view to resolving the issue. This procedure will be complete when the alleged harasser respects the individual's request to cease unwanted and unwelcome behaviour, or when the complainant accepts that the behaviour is not properly described as inappropriate under MCI rules. If neither of these outcomes occurs, the organisation's formal procedure should be followed.

2. General Complaints Procedure

- a. To initiate a formal Complaint Procedure after an unsuccessful informal intervention or other genuine attempt by the parties involved to resolve the dispute between themselves, the member or volunteer initiating the complaint ("the complainant") is to fill out a Dispute/Grievance/Complaint Form.

- e. The formal grievance resolution procedure involves mediation by a mediator who—
- i. is chosen by mutual agreement of both the complainant and the subject(s) of the complaint, or
 - ii. provided that the subject of the complaint is neither the committee nor the Association, is a member or former member who does not have a personal interest in the dispute and is not biased in favour of or against either party, to be chosen by the committee, or

 - ii. The investigators may need to interview the parties involved (which may include the complainant, the respondent, and any witnesses) to obtain information regarding the complaint. The investigators will comprehensively and accurately document all information obtained during the interviews including the parties involved, timing, location, and nature of conduct complained against.
 - iii. If the investigators consider it appropriate for the safe and efficient conduct of an investigation, members involved in the dispute may temporarily be asked to refrain from coming to MCI and MCI associated events during an investigation.

- iv. Throughout the investigation process, all parties involved in the investigation will be regularly kept informed about the investigation.
- v. On the basis of the findings of the investigation, possible outcomes include submission of the finding to all parties to be involved in mediation of the dispute, or submission to the committee if the investigators believe that a disciplinary process may be more appropriate than mediation.
- g. Should the matter proceed to mediation, the mediator to the dispute, in conducting the mediation, must—
 - i. give each party every opportunity to be heard; and
 - ii. allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
 - iii. ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties throughout the mediation process.
- h. The mediator does not determine the outcome of the dispute, rather the goal of mediation is for the parties to attempt in good faith to settle the dispute between themselves with the assistance of the mediator.
- i. Possible outcomes of the mediation include—
 - i. Formal apology by the subject of the complaint and/or an undertaking that the behaviour will cease, or
 - ii. The retraction of the complaint by the complainant, or
 - iii. The parties to the complaint agreeing to a mutually acceptable resolution.
- j. If the mediation process does not resolve the dispute, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012 or otherwise at law.

Risk Levels

One aspect of a person's capacity to work safely concerns the machinery used in the various activities.

The following rating scale provides a guide about the risks of machines and equipment and, while not covering all items in MCI, additional items of equipment can be added to complete the intent of this rating scale.

Note: It may be that equipment within MCI may be old or restricted in function in which case the risk rating below may need to be adjusted.

1. Level 1

- b. Hand tools such as; spanners, hammers, files, vices, manual timber cutting saws, gardening equipment, kitchen equipment including knives.
- c. Paints and varnishes, general cleaning substances, gardening and kitchen products.
